To,

Dr. Pushpendra Singh Gautam
Chairman
Sri Krishna University
Chhatarganj

Vikram University has been basking in the majestic glory of the illustrious past of the ancient city of Ujjain. Ujjain is a city of God Mahakaleshwer and holds the rare privilege of being a 3000 years old holy seat of learning of Lord Krishna.

The Vikram University, Ujjain is one of the oldest University of Madhya Pradesh. Centred India has created a special niche for itself in the past almost Six Decades. Vikram University is NAAC accredited 'A' Grade University and considers excellence in education in high regard and comes across as a key player in contribution to the overall academic scenario of the country to make it a knowledge superpower.

The founders of this historical University wished the people of this Malwa Region to have an open access to learning, irrespective of caste, color or creed. At present the university offers education in 12 faculties and 28 school of studies and institutes, NSS and NCC Training and Orientation Center and 171 affiliated colleges.

The core vision and one of the major objectives of the Vikram University is to make a significant role in bringing academic excellence across the nation and move towards the holistic development of all its students.

In view of the same and in furtherance of our common goals and interests of strengthening the knowledge base of our students and stakeholders, it is suggested that both the institutions may lay into a Memorandum of Understanding through which the stakeholders of both institutions would be highly benefited.

With regards,

Your faithfully

(Prof. Akhilesh Kumar Pandey)
